100 High-Converting Cold Email Templates

The complete B2B outreach swipe file for booking meetings & landing clients

100 High-Converting B2B Cold Email & Lead-Gen Templates

The complete swipe file for booking meetings, landing clients, and turning strangers into paying customers — without sounding like a robot or a spammer.

Every template is plug-and-play. Replace the [BRACKETS], keep it short, send it. Personalise the first line and you will beat 95% of the cold email people receive.

How to use this pack (read this first — it's worth 10 templates)

1. One clear ask per email. Never stack requests. The whole job of a cold email is to earn a reply, not to close the deal.
2. Personalise line 1. Reference something specific — their site, a recent post, a review, a job ad. Generic = deleted.
3. Keep it under 120 words. Cold emails are read on phones in 4 seconds. If it needs scrolling, it needs cutting.
4. Lead with their outcome, not your service. Nobody buys "SEO." They buy "more calls from Google."
5. Soft CTA beats hard CTA. "Worth a quick look?" out-converts "Book a 30-min call" almost every time on a first touch.
6. Follow up 3–5 times. 80% of replies come after email #1. The money is in the sequence (Section 7).
7. Subject lines: lowercase, 2–5 words, curiosity or value. Never use "RE:" fake-reply tricks — they kill trust and deliverability.

Deliverability quick-guard: warm a fresh domain for 2 weeks before volume sending, keep to <40 cold sends/day per inbox, always include a real signature and a plain-text unsubscribe line. One spammy blast can burn a domain for months.

I mapped out the 3 changes that would close it. Want me to send the notes?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 4 — The Ready-Made Asset

Subject: made this for [COMPANY]

```
Hi [NAME],

Want the link? Zero obligation – figured it'd be useful either way.

[YOUR NAME]
```

Template 6 — The Data Point Gift

Subject: your load time vs the industry

Hi [NAME],

Ran [COMPANY]'s site through [tool] – it loads in [X]s, and every extra second past 3s drops conversions ~7%.

I've got a short list of what's slowing it down. Want it?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 7 — The Rewrite Sample

Subject: rewrote your headline (feel free to steal it)

Hi [NAME],

Your current homepage headline is "[CURRENT]." Here's a sharper version aimed at [outcome]:

"[REWRITTEN HEADLINE]"

If you like the direction, I do this for whole pages. Either way it's yours.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 8 — The Missed-Opportunity Note

Subject: you're leaving [X] on the table

Hi [NAME],

You rank #4 for "[KEYWORD]" – page one, but below the fold. Moving to the top 3 is usually [specific lever], and it's the difference between a trickle and a stream of clicks.

Want the 20-minute version of how?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 9 — The Template Attachment

Subject: the [THING] template I mentioned nowhere

Hi [NAME],

Random act of usefulness: attached is the exact [proposal/onboarding/outreach] template we use to [outcome]. Rip it apart, use what helps.

If you ever want the done-for-you version, you know where I am.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 10 — The Local Shout-Out

Subject: saw your review on [PLATFORM]

Hi [NAME],

That 5-star from [customer] about [detail] was great – clearly you do the work right.

The only gap: barely anyone searching "[service] in [town]" finds you yet. I fixed exactly this for [similar business] last month. Want the 3-step summary?

[YOUR NAME]

SECTION 2 — The Problem / Observation Opener (Templates 11–20)

Lead with a specific, real problem you noticed. Specificity is the whole game.

Template 11 — The Specific Observation

Subject: noticed this on [COMPANY]

Hi [NAME],

Quick one – your [contact form / booking flow] currently [specific broken thing]. On mobile it's [worse thing].

That's usually a [X]% drop in enquiries. I can show you the fix in a 2-minute reply if useful.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 12 — The "Is This Intentional?"

Subject: intentional?

Hi [NAME],

Is it deliberate that [COMPANY] isn't running [obvious thing competitors do]? Genuinely asking – sometimes there's a reason.

If not, it's the fastest win I can see for you right now.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 13 — The Silent Leak

Subject: small leak, big number

Hi [NAME],

You're paying to send traffic to [page], but [X]% bounce before they ever see your offer because of [reason]. Small fix, meaningful money.

Want me to point to the exact spot?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 14 — The Outdated Thing

Subject: your [THING] is from [YEAR]

Hi [NAME],

Noticed your [pricing page / stack / listing] still references [outdated detail]. Not a crisis – but it quietly signals "not current" to buyers who are comparing you to [competitor].

Happy to send a 3-line fix list.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 15 — The Mobile Problem

Subject: opened your site on my phone...

Hi [NAME],

...and the [button/menu/CTA] does [specific issue]. Since most of your traffic is mobile, that's likely your #1 conversion leak right now.

Want a screenshot + the fix?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 16 — The Review-Response Gap

Subject: those 2 unanswered reviews

Hi [NAME],

You've got 2 recent reviews with no reply. Responding (even to the good ones) lifts local ranking and trust – Google literally rewards it.

I help businesses like yours turn reviews into ranking. Worth a quick chat?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 17 — The Broken Link

Subject: broken link on [PAGE]

Hi [NAME],

Heads up – the "[link text]" link on your [page] 404s. Costs you nothing to know, might be costing you customers.

While I was in there I spotted 2 other quick wins. Want them?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 18 — The Slow Response Trap

Subject: I filled in your form as a test

Hi [NAME],

Filled in your enquiry form yesterday as a mystery-shopper – [no reply yet / auto-reply only]. Leads go cold in under an hour, so this is likely your most expensive gap.

I set up instant lead follow-up for businesses like yours. 10 minutes to show you?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 19 — The Positioning Blur

Subject: who is [COMPANY] for?

Hi [NAME],

Read your homepage twice and couldn't tell in 5 seconds who it's for or why to pick you. That's the most common (and most expensive) thing I fix.

Want a sharper one-liner draft? On me.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 20 — The Abandonment Angle

Subject: the checkout drop-off

Hi [NAME],

Most [e-commerce/booking] sites lose 60–70% of buyers at checkout to [friction/shipping surprise/no guest option]. A recovery email flow usually claws back 10–15% of that within a week.

Want me to sketch what yours would look like?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 24 — The Named Peer

Hi [NAME],

Working with [peer/adjacent company] on [outcome] – your name came up as someone doing similar work.

Want the 5-minute version?

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR NAME]

Template 30 — The Reverse Case Study

Subject: don't make this mistake

Hi [NAME],

A [niche] business came to me last month after [avoidable failure] cost them [amount].
Totally preventable with [thing].

I can check whether [COMPANY] is exposed to the same. Want me to?

[YOUR NAME]

SECTION 4 — Question & Curiosity Openers (Templates 31–40)

A single sharp question that's genuinely easy to answer restarts a stalled inbox.

Template 31 — The One-Word Reply

Subject: worth exploring?

Hi [NAME],

If I could [specific outcome] for [COMPANY] in [timeframe] without [common objection], would that be worth a 10-minute look?

Just reply "yes" or "not now" – I'll respect either.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 32 — The Right-Person Check

Subject: right person?

Hi [NAME],

Are you the best person at [COMPANY] to talk to about [topic]? If not, could you point me

[YOUR NAME]

Template 33 — The Priority Probe

Subject: is [OUTCOME] on the roadmap?

Hi [NAME],

needle.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 34 — The Assumption Flip

Subject: am I wrong about this?

Hi [NAME],

I'm assuming [COMPANY] wants [outcome] but is stuck on [obstacle]. If I've got that wrong, ignore me.

If I'm right – I've solved exactly this a few times. Want to compare notes?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 35 — The Curiosity Gap

Subject: the thing your competitors hope you never find

Hi [NAME],

There's one [channel/tactic] your top competitor is quietly using to win [customers]. Most people in [industry] still ignore it.

Want me to show you what it is?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 36 — The Either/Or

Subject: build or buy?

For [outcome] – is [COMPANY] planning to build it in-house or bring someone in? No wrong answer, just want to know if there's a fit.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 37 — The "What's Stopping You"

Subject: what's the blocker?

I've got a workaround for all three.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 38 — The Timing Question

[YOUR NAME]

Template 39 — The Number Guess

Subject: rough guess: [N] leads/month?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 40 — The Permission Ask

Subject: ok if I send one idea?

Hi [NAME],

I've got a single, specific idea for [outcome] at [COMPANY]. Not a pitch – just the idea.

Ok if I send it over?

[YOUR NAME]

SECTION 5 — Referral & Name-Drop (Templates 41–50)

Warm the cold email with a shared connection, community, or context.

Template 41 — The Mutual Connection

Subject: [MUTUAL] said we should talk

Hi [NAME],

[Mutual contact] mentioned you're focused on [goal] – thought I'd introduce myself directly rather than go the long way round.

I help [niche] with exactly that. Worth 15 minutes?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 42 — The Community Angle

Subject: fellow [COMMUNITY] member

Hi [NAME],

Saw your post in [group/subreddit/Slack] about [topic] – really good point about [detail].

I work on [related thing] and had a thought that might help. Ok to share?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 43 — The Content Compliment

Subject: your [POST/TALK] on [TOPIC]

Hi [NAME],

Your [article/podcast/talk] on [topic] was genuinely useful – the bit about [specific point] stuck with me.

It's actually why I reached out: [one-line relevance]. Open to a quick exchange?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 44 — The Event Follow-Up

Subject: after [EVENT]

Hi [NAME],

We didn't get to speak at [event], but I caught [detail about them].

I help [niche] with [outcome] and thought there might be a fit. Worth a short call?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 45 — The Referral Request Flip

Subject: wrong person? point me right

Hi [NAME],

I reached out to you because [reason], but if [topic] isn't yours, who should I be speaking to at [COMPANY]?

Happy to take this off your plate in one reply.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 46 — The Shared Client

Subject: we both work with [TYPE]

Hi [NAME],

We serve similar [clients/customers] from different angles – you do [their thing], I do [your thing]. There's usually a neat referral loop in that.

Worth a quick chat about it?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 47 — The Investor/Advisor Drop

Subject: [ADVISOR] suggested I reach out

Hi [NAME],

[Advisor/investor] thought [COMPANY] and I should connect given [reason].

I'll keep it short: I help with [outcome]. Is that relevant right now?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 48 — The Local Network

Subject: fellow [TOWN] business

Hi [NAME],

Also based in [town] – always trying to support other local businesses. I noticed [specific thing] about [COMPANY] and had an idea.

Coffee or a quick call?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 49 — The "Followed You For a While"

Subject: been following [COMPANY]

Hi [NAME],

Been quietly following [COMPANY]'s [growth/content/product] for a while – the [specific move] was smart.

I think I can help with [next problem you'll hit]. Worth a conversation?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 50 — The Podcast/Feature Pitch (reverse value)

Subject: feature [COMPANY]?

Hi [NAME],

I write/record for [audience] and would love to feature [COMPANY]'s take on [topic]. Good exposure for you, great content for me.

15 minutes this week or next?

[YOUR NAME]

Bonus: this "give first" angle opens doors that direct pitches can't.

SECTION 6 — Loom / Video Audit Offers (Templates 51–60)

A personalised video is the single highest-converting cold outreach format in 2026.

Template 51 — The Straight Video Offer

Subject: made you a video

Hi [NAME],

Recorded a 3-minute screen video showing exactly where [COMPANY] is losing [leads/sales] and how to fix it.

Want the link? No cost, no pitch on the video itself.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 52 — The Thumbnail Tease

Subject: [see attached — that's your site]

Hi [NAME],

The attached screenshot is frame 1 of a short video I recorded about your [funnel/page]. There are 3 fixable issues in it.

Reply "send it" and I'll drop the 3-min walkthrough.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 53 — The Competitor Teardown Video

Subject: you vs [COMPETITOR] (2-min video)

Hi [NAME],

Recorded a side-by-side of [COMPANY] and [competitor] – where they're beating you and the 2 changes that flip it.

Want to watch it?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 54 — The Loom + One Fix

Subject: one fix, 2-min video

Hi [NAME],

Short video showing a single change to your [page] that should lift [metric]. If you implement nothing else from me, do this one.

Link?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 55 — The "Already Did the Work"

Subject: already built the fix

Hi [NAME],

I recorded the problem AND mocked up the fix in a 4-minute video. You could hand it straight to your developer.

Want it? Yours regardless of whether we ever work together.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 56 — The Metric-Anchored Video

Subject: why your bounce rate is [X]%

Hi [NAME],

Made a quick video explaining the 3 reasons [COMPANY]'s [metric] is where it is – and what each fix is worth roughly.

Send it over?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 57 — The Onboarding Preview

Subject: what working together looks like (video)

Hi [NAME],

Instead of a boring proposal, I recorded a 5-minute video of exactly what the first 30 days would look like for [COMPANY].

Want to see it before deciding anything?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 58 — The Objection-Killer Video

Subject: "but we tried that"

Hi [NAME],

If [COMPANY] has tried [service] before and it flopped, I recorded a short video on why it usually fails and what we'd do differently.

Worth 4 minutes?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 59 — The Personalised Walkthrough

Subject: walked through [COMPANY] on camera

Hi [NAME],

Spent 10 minutes clicking through [COMPANY] as a first-time customer and recorded my honest reactions. Some good, some fixable.

Want the recording?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 60 — The "No Video, Just Ask"

Subject: should I bother recording it?

Hi [NAME],

I'm about to record a custom teardown of [COMPANY]'s [thing] – takes me 20 minutes, so I'd rather check you'd actually watch it first.

Green light?

[YOUR NAME]

SECTION 7 — Follow-Up Sequence (Templates 61–70)

80% of replies come after email #1. This is a complete 5-touch sequence plus variants. Space them 2–4 days apart.

Template 61 — Follow-Up #1: The Bump

Subject: (reply in the same thread — keep subject)

Hi [NAME],

Floating this back up in case it slipped past. Still happy to send [the thing I offered].

Worth a look?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 62 — Follow-Up #2: New Angle

Hi [NAME],

Different thought since I last wrote: [new specific idea for their business].

That one's probably even more relevant than my first email. Want me to expand?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 63 — Follow-Up #3: The Proof Nudge

Hi [NAME],

Just wrapped [result] for [comparable client] – reminded me of [COMPANY].

Still think there's a fit here. Open to 10 minutes?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 64 — Follow-Up #4: The Assumption Close

Hi [NAME],

Guessing this isn't a priority right now, which is totally fine.

Want me to check back in [Q3/next month], or should I close the loop for good?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 65 — Follow-Up #5: The Break-Up

Subject: closing the loop

Hi [NAME],

I don't want to clutter your inbox, so this is my last note.

If [outcome] ever moves up the list, just reply and I'll pick it straight back up. All the best either way.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 66 — The Value-Add Follow-Up

Hi [NAME],

No pitch – saw this [article/tool/stat] on [topic] and thought of [COMPANY]: [link/point].

Hope it's useful. Still around if you ever want to talk [outcome].

[YOUR NAME]

Template 67 — The "Bad Timing" Re-Open

Hi [NAME],

You mentioned [reason it wasn't the right time] a while back. Figured that might have shifted.

Still worth exploring, or shall I check back later?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 68 — The Forwarded-Up Nudge

Hi [NAME],

If this isn't yours, no problem to forward to whoever owns [topic] – I'll take it from there and leave you alone.

Thanks either way.

[YOUR NAME]

Template 69 — The Deadline/Scarcity Follow-Up

Hi [NAME],

I'm taking on [N] new [niche] clients this month and [X] slots are gone.

Not pressure – just didn't want you to hear about it after the fact if you were on the fence.

[YOUR NAME]

Only use if genuinely true. Fake scarcity is transparent and damaging.

Template 70 — The Re-Engagement (months later)

Subject: been a while

Hi [NAME],

We spoke back in [month] about [topic]. A lot's changed on my end – [new capability/result].

Worth a fresh look for [COMPANY]?

[YOUR NAME]

SECTION 8 — LinkedIn DMs & Connection Notes (Templates 71–80)

Under 300 characters for connection notes. Same rules: specific, short, no pitch on first touch.

Template 71 — The Connection Note (no pitch)

Hi [NAME] – really liked your take on [topic]. Always keen to connect with people doing interesting work in [industry]. No agenda, just a good follow.

Template 72 — The Content-Led Note

[NAME], your post on [topic] was one of the few that actually said something. Connecting so I don't miss the next one.

Template 73 — The Post-Connection Opener

Thanks for connecting, [NAME]! Genuinely not here to pitch – curious what you're focused on this quarter at [COMPANY]. Always happy to share what's working on my side too.

Template 74 — The Soft Value DM

Hi [NAME] – noticed [specific thing] about [COMPANY]. I put together a quick idea that might help. Want me to send it over? Zero obligation.

Template 75 — The Question DM

[NAME], quick one – is [outcome] something your team's prioritising right now, or more of a "someday" thing? Asking because I only reach out where I can genuinely help.

Template 76 — The Engagement-First DM

[NAME], commented on your [post] earlier – wanted to add a thought that didn't fit in a comment: [insight]. Curious how you're seeing it.

Template 77 — The Mutual-Interest DM

Hi [NAME] – we both work with [audience] from different angles. Might be a neat referral overlap. Worth a 15-min swap of notes?

Template 78 — The Event DM

[NAME] – saw you're going to / spoke at [event]. Would love to connect around [topic] while it's fresh. Are you around for a quick call this week?

Template 79 — The Voice-Note Setup DM

Hi [NAME] – I've got a specific idea for [COMPANY] on [topic]. Easier as a 60-sec voice note than a wall of text – ok if I send one?

Template 80 — The Re-Engage DM

[NAME] – we connected a while back but never spoke properly. I've since [new result/capability]. Worth a quick chat about [outcome] for [COMPANY]?

SECTION 9 — Niche-Specific Templates (Templates 81–95)

Tailored language for the highest-volume cold-outreach niches.

Template 81 — Local Service Business (trades, dentists, salons)

Subject: more [service] calls from Google

Hi [NAME],

When someone searches "[service] near me" in [town], [COMPANY] shows up on page 2 – which means the phone rings for someone else.

I move local businesses to the top 3. Did it for [example] last month. Want the plan?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 82 — E-commerce / DTC Brand

Subject: your abandoned-cart flow

Hi [NAME],

[BRAND]'s abandoned-cart emails are [missing / basic]. A proper 3-email flow usually recovers 10–15% of lost checkouts – pure margin, no extra ad spend.

Want me to map yours out free?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 83 — SaaS / Software

Subject: your trial-to-paid gap

Hi [NAME],

Most SaaS leaks users between sign-up and "aha moment." I spotted 2 friction points in [PRODUCT]'s onboarding that likely dent activation.

Want the 3-min teardown?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 84 — Agency / Consultancy

Subject: white-label [service] for [AGENCY]?

Hi [NAME],

You're clearly great at [their service]. If clients ever ask for [your service] too, I white-label it cleanly under your brand – you keep the relationship and the margin.

Worth a chat?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 85 — Coaches / Course Creators

Subject: filling your next cohort

Hi [NAME],

Saw [PROGRAM] is open. The bottleneck for most coaches isn't the offer – it's consistent qualified leads into the top of the funnel.

I build that engine. Want to see how it'd look for you?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 86 — Restaurants / Hospitality

Subject: empty [Tue/Wed] tables

Hi [NAME],

Midweek covers are the easiest revenue most restaurants ignore. A simple [offer + local campaign] fills them without discounting your brand to death.

Want the 2-step version?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 87 — Real Estate

Subject: your listings vs the algorithm

Hi [NAME],

Your listings look great but aren't getting the reach they should on [portal/social]. Small changes to [thing] can double views per listing.

Want a quick audit of your top 3?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 88 — Professional Services (law, accounting)

Subject: referrals aren't enough anymore

Hi [NAME],

Referrals are gold but unpredictable. A quiet inbound channel (content + local search) gives [FIRM] a second stream that compounds.

Worth 15 minutes to see the model?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 89 — Fitness / Gyms / Studios

Subject: your no-show rate

Hi [NAME],

Trial-class no-shows and first-month churn quietly kill studio revenue. A simple automated nudge sequence usually cuts both meaningfully.

Want me to sketch yours?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 90 — Home Services / Contractors

Subject: quotes that go quiet

Hi [NAME],

You send quotes and then... silence. A 3-touch follow-up sequence turns "let me think about it" into booked jobs without you chasing.

Want the exact sequence?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 91 — B2B / Enterprise (longer, formal)

Subject: [OUTCOME] for [COMPANY]'s [DEPT]

Hi [NAME],

Teams like yours at [comparable companies] have used [approach] to achieve [specific, measurable outcome] within [timeframe].

Given [COMPANY]'s current focus on [initiative], I suspect there's a strong fit. Would a brief call with your team be worthwhile?

Best,

[YOUR NAME]

Template 92 — Non-profit / Mission-driven

Subject: more of your budget on the mission

Hi [NAME],

Every hour your team spends on [manual task] is an hour off the mission. I help organisations like [COMPANY] automate exactly that.

Open to a short conversation?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 93 — Creators / Personal Brands

Subject: turning followers into income

Hi [NAME],

You've built a real audience around [topic]. The gap I see is a clean way to monetise it beyond [current method].

Want one specific idea tailored to you?

[YOUR NAME]

Template 94 — Manufacturers / B2B Suppliers

Subject: buyers can't find you online

Hi [NAME],

Your buyers increasingly search before they call – and right now [COMPANY] is hard to find for "[product category]." That's leads going straight to competitors.

Template 95 — Startups / Founders

Subject: [FOUNDER], one growth lever

Hi [NAME],

Congrats on [recent milestone]. At your stage, the fastest lever is usually [specific thing], and I think [COMPANY]'s is under-used.

Want a 15-min founder-to-founder chat about it?

SECTION 10 — Closers, Meeting-Bookers & Re-Activation (Templates 96–100)

For when interest exists and you need to convert it to a booked call or a "yes."

Template 96 — The Calendar Close

Hi [NAME],

Sounds like there's a fit. Rather than email tennis – here's my calendar: [link]. Grab whatever suits and I'll come prepared with [specific value for the call].

Template 97 — The Two-Option Close

Hi [NAME],

Easiest next step: a quick 15-min call. Does [day/time] or [day/time] work better? I'll send an invite either way.

Template 98 — The Low-Commitment Close

Hi [NAME],

No need for a big meeting yet. If you just reply with [one piece of info], I'll send back a tailored [mini-plan/quote] you can react to in your own time.

Template 99 — The Objection Pre-Empt Close

Hi [NAME],

Totally get if budget/timing is the concern. That's exactly why the first step is small and low-risk: [specific small first step]. If it doesn't prove itself, we stop.

Want to start there?

Template 100 — The Win-Back (dead lead)

Subject: picking this back up?

Hi [NAME],

We talked about [outcome] a while ago and it went quiet – no hard feelings, timing is everything.

I've since [new result/offer/lower-risk option]. If it's worth another look, just reply "yes" and I'll take it from there.

Bonus: The 6 rules that make any of these convert

1. Send Tuesday–Thursday, 7–9am or 1–3pm local to the recipient.
2. First line must be about them, never about you.
3. One CTA, phrased as a question.
4. No attachments on email #1 to a cold domain (hurts deliverability) — offer them, deliver on reply.
5. Track opens and replies, not sends. Kill templates under a 5% reply rate; scale ones above 12%.
6. Always follow up. A polite 5-touch sequence typically triples total replies vs a single send.
